YOU ARE WHAT YOU THINK! OVERCOMING NEGATIVISM IS THE FOCUS OF D.I.V.A. OF DIALOG PRESENTATION AT PWN NATIONAL BOOK TOUR &
WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

CHICAGO, IL – International author and self-development expert, Cassandra “D.I.V.A. of Dialog™” Lee will present the self-empowerment session “You Are What You Think! Overcoming Negativism” at the PWN National Book Tour and Women’s Conference on Saturday, May 16, 2009 from 1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. at the Galt House in Louisville, KY.

Designed to provide attendees with success strategies for improving their personal and professional lives, “You Are What You Think! Overcoming Negativism” will address the power of constructive problem solving, necessity for masterful thinking, purpose of positive attitude, and solid strategies for overcoming negative thinking.

This inspirational speaker and national trainer has over 10 years experience in the speaking industry and active memberships with the Association for the Promotion of Campus Activities, Professional Woman Network, SpeakerMatch.com, StudentAffairs.com, and Toastmasters International. She has authored three books in the PWN self-empowerment book library, including Emotional Wellness for Women, Volume II, Survival Skills for the African-American Woman, and The Young Woman’s Guide for Personal Success, along with the audio CD D.I.V.A.BITS™: 24 Enlightening Tips to Conquer Communication Skills. Copies of these resources can be purchased at www.ssanee.com or www.pwnbooks.com.

The registration fee is $129 and includes lunch, beverages, conference materials, and attendance to the private book signing and author networking reception. For the agenda or to register, visit www.pwnbooks.com.
