NEWS FROM SSANEE Training & Consulting Group

"Supplying Solutions & Advice for Navigating with Education & Empowerment"

The Who's Who publication has the goal of "illuminating the true power of diversity by affording a measure of recognition to the men and women who have made their mark in their professions, occupations, or in service to others in their community."

Considered "an advocate for the empowerment of professional women," Ms. Lee, also known as the "D.I.V.A. of Dialog™" believes in making her mark in her career and community by helping others to live a prosperous and productive life.

As an author, she has written several self-empowerment books and articles geared toward helping women and youth audiences to think strategically, communicate effectively, and lead influentially for personal growth and career success.

As an educator and entrepreneur, through her own company, SSANEE Training & Consulting Group, she serves as an independent contractor and consultant for several clients, in addition to conducting and presenting self-promoted seminars, workshops, training sessions, and programs geared toward elevating and enhancing the skills, knowledge, and talents of her audiences worldwide in the areas of communication skills, leadership skills, and thought power.

As a mentor and Toastmaster, she lives by her mission of education and empowerment as she shares with her mentees and fellow Toastmasters members tools, techniques, strategies, solutions, information, and insights that serve as resources to help them reach their personal and professional goals.
